

CRAB ORCHARD.

—The warm days bring Summer guests and we are glad to see them.

—Mrs. W. B. Jarvis, of Lancaster, Misses Maggie and Myrtle Finch, of Danville, and Miss Anna Rains, of Lebanon, were the guests of J. L. Jarvis and wife, of Crab Orchard.

—The L. & N. has given notice that all roads on their right-of-way must be moved in 30 days. If it can be enforced there will be quite a road moving in this end of the county.

—It seems that we are going to have schools in Crab Orchard from the looks of teachers now on hand. Profs. Stapp, Smith and Willis are in our midst, all good instructors.

—There was a delightful picnic given Saturday for the benefit of the young ladies who have just returned from school, but we learn it is to be written up by one who attended and I know she is capable of doing it justice.

—The supper given by the ladies of the Christian church Friday night was quite a financial success, but considering the quality of everything served it should have been better. The Crab Orchard ladies are certainly at the average as to cake baking.

—Rev. R. H. Crossfield, of Glasgow, won golden opinions here Sunday as a preacher of much power. His morning sermon at the Christian church is highly spoken of but the one at the union services at night was a master piece. It was upon the subject of temptation with text from James 1:12.

—Miss Alice Moore gave a select hop Wednesday night in honor of her guest, Miss Wilde. Everyone reports a good time. Miss Alice looked queenly in a pink silk with black velvet trimming, while her guest was beautifully arrayed in heliotrope silk with lace. Mrs. Moore served refreshments in her usual style.

—Mr. W. Wallace and family, of Boyle, have taken rooms at Mrs. Ward's for the Summer. Mr. Andrew Buchanan is home from Centre College. He brought Mr. Arch McKinney with him to attend the picnic Saturday. Miss Lorena Hardin, Mrs. D. B. Edmiston, Mrs. John Edmiston and Mr. Felix Myers are on the sick list. Miss Hallie Edmiston and Grace Tudor attended commencement at Lancaster. Miss Eva Steger came home from Stanford college Saturday, perfectly willing to rest through the hot weather. Miss Ella Melvin is visiting her brother, Ed Melvin at London. Miss Lockie Dillon and brother, Oliver, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Burke at Junction City. Mrs. J. L. McKinney returns to her home in Montgomery Thursday. She will be accompanied by her niece, Miss Katie Slaughter, who will visit her a month. Misses Etta and Addie Holmes are visiting relatives near Stanford.

A Bright Star Gone.

Mrs. Etta Elmore, poetess, novelist, christian, died at her home in Lincoln county. Words of love to her. From the twilight of illness to a dawn of recovery back to the night of death. On Saturday, June 2nd, at her residence in Lincoln county, Mrs. Etta Elmore, the accomplished poetess and journalist, departed this life. Although sympathetic friends and relatives had closely watched and were expecting the sad intelligence, her death fell as a heavy blow on all who knew or knew of her. She had been ill for a few days but was not thought to be dangerously so until a few hours before she died. She suffered intensely but bore it with that sweet patience and submission which was characteristic of her life. Mrs. Etta was born in 1868. She was the relict of Will Elmore, who preceded her to the tomb four years. Mrs. Etta was tender, kind and gentle in her manners. Although just entering upon the pathway of life's duties and activities she had secured for herself a large circle of tried and true friends, who admired her for her true moral and christian virtues. She was the daughter of a fond and devoted mother, who though stricken by this bitter page of early bereavement, has the happy consolation that she has the sympathy of a large circle of friends and the firm assurance that Etta rests in the home of the blessed. All who knew Mrs. Etta bear testimony that she was loving and lovable in all the walks of life, carrying with her that true but modest personality that never failed to awaken the admiration of all true lovers of the true and beautiful. She was a member of the Christian church and in all her relations to the church of Christ among men she was true until the light of her earthly life was smothered in death. She was transported from the nursery of Christ's chosen ones to be a partaker of the joys of the angel of light. While it is sad to part with her let it be a lesson to all that while the good are gathered home, all alike are liable to be called. Watch therefore for ye know not the day nor the hour the son of man cometh. She has gone to her reward, and while a large circle of friends shed tears and bear this page of a sad and dreary heart she wears her palm of victory and invites all to join her in happy home in the land of the eternal.

A FRIEND.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—A patent churn man has struck the town once more.

—Mr. Joe Bolton informs me that his first child is a girl and that it arrived last week.

—Laurel Co. has 5,545 white children within the school age and 241 colored, making a total of 5,786.

—I am requested to ask the people of London who read the Bible to look at Prov. xix:11 and James 1:20.

—The democratic county committee will decide what to do Monday in regard to nominations for county offices.

—George Lams and a son of Sam Gaines are down with the typhoid fever. Both live out of town and are doing well.

—The Knights of Pythias did not decorate at Pittsburg Saturday, but will do so next Sunday. A large crowd will be present.

—Mrs. H. M. Dishon, of East Bernstadt, died Sunday. Her infant was buried the same day. Hiram Jones' wife of the Tattle neighborhood, died Saturday.

—There were 67 applicants for certificates at the school examination last week. Of this number 10 received first-class certificates, 21 second and 20 third. The remaining 16 failed.

—The London base ball club has (by the kindness of the fair ground management) been allowed to lay off a field in the center of the fair grounds. It is a beautiful place for a game and the egotists belonging to it believe that they could beat the Louisvilles.

—Hon. W. B. Catching and Col. Ed. Parker are at home from Washington City. Mrs. Olmstead Adams, of Paint Lick, is visiting here. Mrs. R. G. Ward and children, of Lancaster, are here visiting relatives. Miss Nannie McWhorter, is at her brother's at McWhorter, Ky., for a few days.

—Col. Joe Young, who will probably be the next postmaster of London, is now in the Western States subletting mail contracts. He will be glad to learn when he reads the INTERIOR JOURNAL, of the 10 pound boy at his father-in-law's, Judge Vincent Boreing, where Mrs. Young now resides. Under the circumstances, Joe is almost certain to name him Grover.

—A recent visit to Mt. Vernon shows that it is a growing town and a business place. There is more going on there in an hour than many mountain towns can show up in a week. The water supply from Limestone Springs is not equalled by any town in the State and the physicians have to go to adjoining counties for practice, except for births, which occur often enough to give them good support.

—Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Thomas L. Adams and Miss Katherine McGrath, at Bryantsville, June 25. As Tommy comes into an inheritance of $10,000 in cash and a blue-grass farm and his bride will be equally well supplied with this world's goods, there is no doubt but their pathway will be a golden one, and there will be silver lining behind every cloud. May they love each other through life as they do now, is as good a wish as any one could give them.

—Judge Williams, in Franklin county court, decided that the distillers' act in the new constitution is unconstitutional. The effect will be to tax all whisky in bond just as other personal property, tax to be paid annually.

—The Alabama supreme court, having affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of the eight negro murderers of Montgomery, all of the men will be hanged next month. They murdered a store-keeper.

—Twenty commonwealers are reported drowned near Brighton, Col., by the capsizing of a boat. Good. Best way to get rid of 'em.

—Theodore P. Haughey, late president of the wrecked Indianapolis bank, was sentenced to six years in the penitentiary.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—At 5:30 p. m. Sunday, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. J. Wesley Hocker, of Hustonville, Mrs. America Bailey breathed her last. She had been dangerously ill for months and considering the small amount of nourishment she had taken during that time, it is remarkable with what tenacity she held on to life. Mrs. Bailey, who was the relict of the late Carroll Bailey, was born May 12, 1802, and was consequently over 92 years old—perhaps the oldest inhabitant in the county. Her husband, who was in his day a prominent farmer and stock raiser, was thrown from his horse and died from the effects April 25, 1849. This left Mrs. Bailey with nine children to raise, 60 slaves to look after and several farms to work. That she succeeded in all this, one has only to recall the fact that all of her children grew up to be prominent in business circles, in social circles, and later on and better than all, the happy and respected heads of families. The business that was left in her charge was carefully attended to, and notwithstanding her large family, the little fortune left by her husband grew larger instead of smaller, under her good management. Mrs. Bailey was the only child of James and Polly Patton, who were born in 1773 and 1782, respectively, and it was on Feb. 8, 1826, that she was wedded to Mr. Bailey. The nine children that blessed the union have all married, and with the exception of Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Danlap and Mrs. Cook, all are living. They are: Mrs. J. E. Huffman, Mrs. W. L. Williams, Mrs. Richard Dunlap, Mrs. Samuel Reid, Mrs. Dr. W. S. Drye, J. P. Bailey, Mrs. J. M. Cook, Mrs. J. W. Hocker and Mrs. Helen B. Huffman. The deceased was an excellent woman, kind-hearted and true and ever ready to do that which would add to the happiness of others. Even in her last days, when her frame feeble and aching, she sought to add pleasure to her children and grand-children by donating bits of her handiwork, which will be held as treasures by those as long as life lasts. Mrs. Bailey joined the Christian church years ago and has ever been a consistent, conscientious Christian, always ready to do the Master's will. She frequently spoke of dying, always expressing her willingness to go, but at the same time acknowledging that it would be hard to give up her friends here. For about 25 years Mrs. Bailey was a member of Mr. J. M. Cook's family, but since that gentleman's death she has made her home at Mr. Hocker's, where she died. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon all that was mortal of this excellent woman was laid to rest in the cemetery at Hustonville, after appropriate remarks by Eld. W. L. Williams, thus ending a well spent life. May the angels peacefully bear her spirit to that brighter and better world where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.

—The little baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Gaines a week ago was buried yesterday in Buffalo Cemetery, having died of liver affection.

—The great clock at Rouen, France, has been grinding out time and striking the hours and quarters for over 500 years, running all this time without interruption.

—Queen Victoria is said to be a very poor speller, and is addicted to the habit of writing illegibly to hide errors in orthography. A great many people like to do this in their matter.

—Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher is a sensible woman. She says: "I am unalterably opposed to woman suffrage. I can not understand why women will not be satisfied with being women, without aspiring to man's estate."

—The floods in the Northwest have reached their height and have begun to subside. The damage that has resulted will reach $5,000,000, falling principally on the railroads. The western connection of the Union Pacific is practically washed out for 200 miles and others have been damaged almost as much.

—The family of an Italian who was mobbed in New Orleans in the prison yard was given by a court $5,000 damages as a test case. The U. S. Court of Appeals has decided unanimously that cities are only responsible for damages done to property by mobs, and damages for deaths can not be collected from them.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottles. At A. R. Penny's Drug Store.

A Quarter Century Test.

For a quarter of a century Dr. King's New Discovery has been tested and the millions who have received benefit from its use testify to its wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. A remedy that has stood the test so long and that has given so universal satisfaction is no experiment. Each bottle is positively guaranteed to give relief or the money will be refunded. It is admitted to be the most reliable for Coughs and Colds. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—The halls in the court house and the circuit court room are receiving a much needed coat of plastering.

—The directors of the Lancaster Building and Loan Association elected J. C. Hemphill as secretary and treasurer vice R. E. McRoberts, resigned.

—The flower mission of the W. C. T. U. held services at the county poor house Sunday afternoon, when Rev. Chas. Reid preached. A large crowd was in attendance.

—The alarm of fire Saturday was caused by the burning of a few shingles on the roof of Mr. E. Brown's kitchen. The flames were extinguished with several buckets of water.

—Rev. Lucien Noel preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and announced that there would be regular services at this church every Sunday until further notice.

—Mr. Coleman Lee has returned from Louisville, where he has been attending school and was given a handsome reception Saturday evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. Blanche Sweeney. A large number of his young friends were present. An elegant supper was served, the string band discoursed sweet music and a delightful evening was spent.

—The session of the large and excellent school of Miss Sallie Anderson closed with appropriate exercises at the court-house on Thursday evening, June 7th. The attendance was large and the audience was delighted with the performances that consisted of songs, recitations and a "cantata." Miss Helen Gill was awarded the prize of a gold medal for good behavior, which was presented by Gen. Landrum at the close of the exercises.

—It is said that the graduating class at "Old Centre" this week will appear in caps and gowns. The justices of the supreme court, wear gowns upon the bench. Justice Harlan enveloped in his judicial paraphernalia looks as majestic as jumbo; while Chief Justice Fuller looks as though his man had just primped him for a country picnic. Say what you will there is a great deal in appearances.

—And now on top of our other troubles comes a coal famine; and old fashioned fires of wood are in order. The only trouble, outside of the scarcity of timber is the difficulty of adapting the wood to the grates that have been prepared for the exclusive use of coal. In olden times it was the custom to set apart days of fasting and prayer in times of trouble. Why should not this time honored custom be renewed, especially at a time when everything seems to be going wrong?

—Miss Kate Selvidge, of Chattanooga, is visiting Mrs. Cliff Anderson. W. K. Shugars and Carpenter Stewart went to Crab Orchard Sunday. Mrs. Edward Stevenson and little son, Edward Chauncey, and Miss Lizzie Hopper, of Huston, Texas, are the guests of Mrs. Anne Hopper. Miss Alice Hudson has returned from school in Virginia. Miss Lizzie Thompson is the guest of Miss Maggie Bright in Stanford. Mr. H. A. B. Marksbury has returned from a business trip to Louisville. Mr. John Baughman, of Boyle, visited his niece, Miss Nannie Sweeney Saturday. Mr. Herbert Price, of Danville, is the guest of Mr. Fred Frisbie. Miss Fannie Underwood returned from Eminence, Saturday, where she attended school this year. Messrs. Frank B. Marksbury and Joe Haselden attended a big party in Nicholasville last week.

—The doctors were given a big banquet at Shelbyville Thursday night and next morning the body adjourned, after electing the following officers: J. B. Marvin, of Louisville, president; C. W. Aitkin, of Flemingsburg, first vice-president; John F. Baughman, of Flat Lick, second vice-president; Steele Bailey, of Stanford, secretary; J. B. Kinnaird, of Lancaster, treasurer; Frank Boyd, of Paducah, librarian. Board of Censors, W. W. Richman, of Clinton; W. R. Kirk, of Louisville; C. D. Mansfield, of Stanton. Harrodsburg was selected as the place of the next meeting, and the physicians of Mercer county were appointed as a committee of arrangements, with power to choose their own chairman.

ASHLAND, Wis.—The famous retreat in northern Wisconsin located on the Wisconsin Central Lines at the head of the Chequamegon Bay is a most desirable spot for one to spend a summer outing, surrounded as it is by the beautiful Apostle Islands. Little need be said of its scenic beauty and health giving qualities. This place should not be overlooked by those figuring on a resort for their next summer's vacation. The tourist will find excellent fishing and boating at this point, and good hotel accommodations at very reasonable rates. For further particulars, maps, time tables, and guide books apply to Jas. C. Pond, Gen'l. Pass. Agt., Milwaukee, Wis.

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot summer weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of bloody flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within 24 hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. L. Duncan, Bon-aqua, Hickman Co., Tenn. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

FOR CONGRESS, JAS. B. MCCREARY
 For County Judge, JAS. WALKER GIVENS
 " Clerk, G. B. COOPER

 " Sheriff, T. D. NEWLAND
 " Assessor, E. D. KENNEDY
 " Jailor, G. W. DEBORD

THE republican convention at Nicholasville nominated Ex Senator, Dr. P. J. Roberts, of Madison, for Congress, and he accepted the doubtful honor, thereby proving the truth of the line, "fools rush in where angels fear to tread," tho' it must be confessed that the outcome of the convention was more creditable than was expected. The doctor is a man of fair ability, good standing and popularity in his county and will doubtless poll his full party vote, though we do not suppose he is daft enough to think he has a ghost of a chance to beat the thoroughbred from his own county that he has been pitted against. The resolutions adopted condemn every thing democratic and charge all the evils that afflict mankind to the present administration.

BETWEEN Charley Moore, who pours hot shot into him in his blade, and Desha Breckinridge, who denounces him as a liar and a coward, the present lot of W. C. Owens is not a happy one. He, however, comes back at his accusers and in a card charges Desha with cowardice and hiding behind Moore, a confessed coward. He further takes occasion to brand Col. Breckinridge as a liar and perjurer and says he is ready to meet any of them at any time and in any way they may select. There, be gosh. Now let them put up or shut up.

THE Senate, which goes on the same principle towards the tax-payers, that Vanderbilt expressed towards the public, which he said might be damned. The House tries in a measure to follow the democratic doctrine of keeping the expenses down to an economically administered government, but the House of Lords won't agree to it. It has just increased the diplomatic, consular and army bills $69,700 by increasing the salaries of ministers to unimportant countries and whose pay was already more than liberal for their sinecures.

THE editors, after being wined and dined by the good people of Frankfort, elected Ion B. Nall of the Farmers Home Journal, president, John A. Bell, of the Glasgow Times, vice-president and Lovell W. Gaines, of the Elkton, Ky. Progress, secretary, the latter defeating R. E. Morningstar, of the Bowling Green Democrat and Russellville Ledger by two votes. While in Frankfort the editors were taken to the penitentiary, but strange to say none of them were locked up.

THE civil service commissioners are so struck on the old humbug that they wish to extend its power to the census department, which is to be made a permanent one, with clerical force increased every time the census is taken. They have urged President Cleveland to have it done, but if he is wise in his day and generation, he will let the matter severely alone. The mugwump, that bastard of politicians, alone can see any beauty in the snivel service fraud.

THE striking miners are murdering people, burning bridges and destroying property in their mad fight to gain their point, thereby forfeiting the support of the public and rendering volleys of lead the only argument necessary. The kind of war they are waging can not be permitted in this country.

ANOTHER murderer has reaped the benefit of the law's delay. E. B. Turpin, who killed Wm. Carter at Gallatin, Tenn., was acquitted Saturday, after four trials, in one of which he got a verdict for life. Money and unscrupulous lawyers can often set right and justice to naught.

THE unimportant information is sent out from Richmond, Va., that Senator Hill will favor Vice-President Stevenson for the presidential nomination in 1896. As the senator has proved himself a traitor to his party, he is a dead cock in the pit and his support will amount to less than his own candidacy for president in 1892.

ACCORDING to the Siamese belief it takes the soul seven days to reach Heaven after death. According to the INTERIOR JOURNAL's belief it will take some of the souls, who owe it and want pay, 10,000 years or more to reach there, after passing through hell and great tribulations.

A CRANK called on the president the other day with the avowed intention of converting him to ways of righteousness. The police thought Mr. Cleveland good enough already and landing the fellow in a patrol wagon hauled him off to the station house.

—John White was chosen the democratic nominee for county clerk of Madison, to fill a vacancy by a vote of 1,092, Tudor 792 and Evans 661. Money cut a big figure.

THE statement that Little Phil Thompson got $50,000 for getting the bill through Congress which the president has just signed, authorizing a bridge across the Hudson, between New York and Jersey City, is doubtless as much magnified as his estimate of Kentucky manhood is contracted.

LUCIAN STRANGE, editor of the Columbia Spectator, aged 21, died last week after a few days' illness, fully prepared to meet his Savior. Cut down in the morning of a life that promised so much, his death is peculiarly sad, and the profession feels for the family the sincerest sympathy.

NEWSY NOTES.

—Drouth in Kansas is broken. Rain has fallen for 24 hours.

—Mrs. Cleveland and her babies are summering at Buzzard Bay.

—Dr. J. F. Stone was tarred and feathered near Newport News by 15 masked men.

—Lawrence Spiller was hanged at Staunton, Va., for the murder of Lottie Ronel. Death was instantaneous.

—Suit has been brought against Judge Jim Jewell for $1,000. The board of aldermen are determined to oust Jewell.

—A fast Vandalia train was wrecked 46 miles east of St. Louis. The fireman was killed and 12 persons were injured.

—Fire at Kansas City Sunday destroyed two agricultural implement plants causing a loss of $310,000. Five persons were injured by falling walls.

—Coal trains were safely moved through Sullivan county, Ind. It is believed the strike is about at an end, and that the militia will soon be ordered home.

—The great electric light of 160,000,000 candle power has been started up at Sandy Hook, near New York. It converts night into day for miles around, being visible even at Philadelphia.

—Two masked men robbed the railroad station and express office at Fort Gibson, I. T., Saturday night, securing besides $600 in cash, three express packages thought to contain large sums of money.

—Robert Isdale, a prisoner at Leavenworth, Kas., confessed to the murder of Mr. Menifer, of Tennessee, at Galesburg, Ill. The murder occurred in May. At the time it was supposed he died from escaping gas.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

THE trial of A. C. Dunn for the murder of James Brown, for which six jurors had been obtained at our last report, proceeded Friday morning after the additional jurors had been obtained from the 25 men summoned as follows: J. T. Lawrence, Dan Holman, B. F. Hayden, J. D. Bastin, J. T. Bingaman, and W. F. Abraham. The other jurors were J. D. Jones, W. H. Dudderar, B. W. Givens, B. Chancellor, J. R. Hales and J. S. Rice.

The trial lasted till Saturday afternoon when a verdict of acquittal was rendered in a few moments, though on the first vote three were for short terms in the penitentiary. There was no proof that Dunn did the killing, except his own testimony, so the Commonwealth tried principally to prove that his statement as to the cause of the act, was untrue, by introducing witnesses who said they would not believe him on oath and told of his bad character generally. The cause of the killing was the demand of Brown of $125, which he claimed Dunn owed him for some wheat land. Dunn denied the justice of the claim and then he said that Brown hounded his footsteps and made life a burden to him till he was forced to kill him.

A number of the jurors in the Dunn case had cholera morbus attacks, but Mr. J. D. Bastin suffered more than any. He sat through the case with his eyes closed and looked much like a corpse.

Judge Saufley has issued a mandamus to the county judge to order the local option election in Stanford, which that official had declined to make, because he claimed that the town had, in voting with the precinct, forfeited its rights. The higher court holds that the legal requirements as to the number of petitioners having been complied with, the county judge's act in making the order is purely ministerial and should have been made.

Mr. J. G. Denny, who has recently returned from a course in the law department of the University of Virginia, applied for license to practice law Saturday. Out of respect to Clerk J. P. Bailey, whose mother was to be buried during the day, the court met yesterday and immediately adjourned.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. John Bell Gibson returned from holding a meeting at Pineville yesterday, which resulted in 26 confessions. He preached the funerals of both Andy Johnson and Horn, who killed each other, while in Pineville.

—A woman evangelist, Mrs. Smith, who has been holding a meeting at Neals school house, closed last night with 20-odd additions, and will begin another at Coffey's school house tonight.

—At a meeting of the Co operative Society of the Christian church yesterday Eld. J. G. Livingston was employed as evangelist for another year and Rush Branch fixed as the next place of meeting, Saturday before the 3rd Sunday in October.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Mr. Thomas Henry, of Parkville, and Miss Lady Adams, of this county, were married on the 8th.

—The marriage of Dr. Obe Caldwell, son of Hon. Logan Caldwell, of Boyle county, and Miss Lillian, daughter of Phil Warren, of Springfield, Ill., will take place June 20.

—Miss Kitty Cheatham, the actress, and Mr. William Henry Thompson, of Liverpool, England, were married at Nashville at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Thomas Plater.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Stanford Fair, July 19 and 20.

—"Bun" Gaines sold to Pony Beazley, of Garrard, a sorrel mare for $140.

—For SALE.—Yearling Durham bull, 900 pounds. W. H. Murphy, Stanford.

—Twelve out of 14 of the colts that have been foaled at Cleburn Stock Farm are pacers.

—Col. R. C. Morgan, of Lexington, bought 30,000 pounds of hemp on Monday for which he paid $5 per 112 pounds.

—George Alford sold to Farris & Hardin a combined mare for $135 and bought of Harve Helm a gelding by Pence for $140.

—Patronize home institutions and help your own cause by getting your stock ready for the Stanford Fair July 19th and 20th.

—Direct, 2:05, has 68 mares booked to him this year and every one is either a performer, sister of a performer or the dam of one.

—The Madison Fair will be held July 24-27 with $4,500 in purses and premiums. Waller Bennett has been chosen president and S. A. Deatherage secretary.

—The fair will give a $150 stake to stallions and a similar stake to mares and geldings. It will only cost $5 to nominate and $2.50 to enter. Write to the secretary for entry blanks.

—The horse Match Box, which ran second to Lord Rosebery's Ladas, in the English Derby, was bought by Baron Hirsch for $75,000, and $25,000 additional if he wins the Grand Prize of Paris.

—The rich Toboggan Slide Handicap was won at Morris Park, by Correction, who galloped away from some of the fastest horses in the East. She went the half mile in 45 1/2 seconds, breaking the world's best previous time by one-half a second.

—At the Ewell sale, near Spring Hill, Tenn., 35 Shetland ponies brought $2,954, an average of $84.40. Thirteen Welsh ponies brought $655, an average of $50.38. Brood mares sold astonishingly low. Twenty-six were offered and the average price was $37.

—Dick Gentry, of Boyle, has bought for Nelson Morris, of Chicago, the following export cattle for August delivery. Of Leander Davison, of Garrard, a car-load at 4 1/2c; of Pony Beazley, of Garrard, 84 at 4 1/2c; of Frank Logan, of this county, a car-load at 4 1/2c and of Joe McDowell, of Boyle, two car loads at 4 1/2c.

—Only a fairly good crowd attended court yesterday and business was dull generally. There were about 40 cattle on the market but no sales were made publicly. Jesse Fox, of Boyle, sold to Hon. J. S. Owsley 12 stock cattle at 3c. A few plug horses sold at $12.50 to $53.

—Oregon has a novel idea. Horses are cheap and a company in Portland proposes to buy those that are worth next to nothing, slaughtering them for their oil, hides, glue and fertilizing material. It is estimated that there are 2,000,000 half breed wild horses in the Northwest for which no other use can be found.

—Commissioner R. C. Warren sold the John S. Hays place of 254 acres yesterday to Forestus Reid at $32.25. It lies on the Hustonville pike, 1 1/2 miles from Stanford and is poorly improved. The Dudderar Mill property was bid to $4,400 by Col. W. H. Dudderar, who executed bond for the payment, and it being less than two thirds of its appraised value, the Dudderars have a year to redeem it.

Following are the dates fixed so far for the Kentucky Fairs:

Harrodsburg, June 27 to 29.
 Lexington, trotting, July 4 to 6.
 Shelbyville, July 11 to 13.
 Springfield, July 11 to 13.
 Stanford, July 19 and 20.
 Lebanon, July 25 to 27.
 Danville, August 1 to 3.
 Maysville, August 1 to 4.
 Nicholasville, August 7 to 10.
 Eminence, August 8 to 11.
 Versailles, August 14 to 17.
 Columbia, August 21 to 24.
 Winchester, August 25 to Sept. 1.
 Lexington, August 25 to Sept. 1.
 Paris, Sept. 4 to 8.
 Harrodsburg, September 4 to 8.
 Bowling Green, Sept. 4 to 8.
 Paducah, September 18 to 21.
 Sharpburg, Sept. 18 to 21.
 Germantown, October 3 to 6.
 Lexington, trotting, October 6 to 13.

"Many of the citizens of Painville, Ind., are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This remedy has proven of so much value for colds, croup and whooping cough in children, that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it. For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, Druggist, Stanford.

CONCLUDED TO WALK.

A Search For a Moral Railroad Proves to Be In Vain.

"Excuse me, sir," he began as he walked up to the special officer at the Third street depot the other afternoon, "but am I correct in thinking there are several different railroads by which I can reach Chicago from Detroit?"

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Fare about the same on all of them, I presume?"

"About the same."

"And there isn't much difference as to time?"

"Only a slight difference, sir."

"Why, yes, sir."

"I supposed you would be, but am glad to know that you really are. What I desire to know most of all is which line stands highest in public estimation as a moral railroad."

"I—I don't understand you, sir," stammered the officer.

"Then I will explain. I am a respectable, law abiding person. I never attend a circus, boxing match, dog fight or horse race. I do not drink, smoke, chew nor swear. Now and then I have to patronize an immoral railroad, but never when I can help it. The question is, Which of these lines is moral?"

"I know that the superintendent of one of them swears, for he d—d my eyes not a month ago."

"He did, eh? I don't want that line."

"Then strike off that line."

"That's another line rubbed out."

"I see—not a moral road among the whole lot," replied the stranger. "What is the distance from here to Chicago by the highway?"

"About 800 miles, sir."

"Very well—thank you—I will walk. I trust you will not permit the brazen immorality of the railroads to affect your own demeanor. Doors swing out? Ah—I see—good day."—Detroit Free Press.

POSTED.

There personally appeared before me, justice of the peace in and for Lincoln county, William Wright, Dr. James Riffe and Milton Reynolds, who state on oath that they are the parties who valued the cow, an estray on the farm of A. C. Dunn. The said cow is a speckled roan, about 10 years old; she has the bush of her tail off; she will weigh about 800 pounds. They furthermore state that they regard her as worth eighteen dollars. ($18.) Said cow came to A. C. Dunn's, April 23, 1894.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Mrs. P. W. GREEN remains quite sick. Miss MARY KAY is visiting relatives in Grant county.

Mrs. R. W. HOCKER returned to Kansas City Friday.

GEORGE B. WEAREN is now head book-keeper at the mill.

Mrs. MONTIE FOX, of Danville, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Annie Baughman.

MISS LEAH STEGER and Mr. M. J. Harris, of Crab Orchard, attended the commencement.

MISS DODSON, of North Carolina, is the guest of the Misses Owsley at their lovely country home.

MR. ZAN DUDDERAR and wife, of Louisville, have been visiting his father, Col. W. Huff Dudderar.

MR. W. W. GARNETT, who has been attending the State College at Lexington, spent several days with his sister, Mrs. J. S. Rice.

Mrs. R. R. HOUKIGAN, of Marion, came up Friday with Miss Minnie Ruple, who has been visiting her, and returned yesterday.

MISS MAGGIE BRIGHT, of Stanford, who has been visiting Miss Lizzie Thomson, at Lancaster, returned home Saturday accompanied by her.

MR. MATE WOODSON, chief dispatcher on the C. V. Division, was here yesterday en route to the train dispatchers' annual meeting at Chicago.

Mrs. ED WILKINSON went down to Junction City to see her sister, Mrs. R. B. Wilkinson, who has presented her husband with a pair of girls.

MR. G. W. COFFEY, formerly of this section but now of Orlando, Fla., is here on a visit to his brother-in-law, Mr. D. W. Vandever, and other friends.

CAPT. J. B. DOUGLAS, of the Corbin and Jellico run, passed through Saturday to Paint Creek to see his wife and children who are visiting relatives there.

MR. W. H. PETTUS, who has been assistant in the depot here during Mr. I. W. Fish's enforced retirement, will go to Pittsburgh after spending a few days at home.

MISS OPHELIA and CLARA LACKEY of Stanford, are visiting Miss Ada Farra. Miss Stella Ballou, of Stanford, is visiting her brother, Mr. H. M. Ballou.—Lancaster Record.

MISS DOLLIE ALCON and Kate Baughman, of Hustonville, were here during the commencement. The former was with her aunt, Mrs. Bettie McKinney, and the latter with her cousins, the Misses Baughman.

MISS HARRY BAUGHMAN, Richard Bush and Will Hocker, of Kentucky University, Joe McAllister, of Centre College and Arthur Hubbard of Davis Military Academy, Winston, N. C., are at home for the vacation.

MISS SUE BAUGHMAN's experience as a teacher at the college has proven exceedingly satisfactory to the management. She has shown much adaptation to the work, of which she is very fond. At present she is visiting friends in Danville.

MISS LUCY MASTERSON ALCON, of Hustonville, who graduates this week at the Western Female Seminary at Oxford, O., has the junior's thanks for an invitation to the commencement exercises. There are 12 graduates. Miss Alcorn's sister, Miss Mattie, who is attending the same institution, graduates next year.

MISS JOSEPHINE FORRESTER and Virginia Jackson, of the college faculty, left Sunday night for their respective homes at Hillsboro, N. C. and Bluff City, Tenn. Both have worked hard and earned the rest of a vacation that we hope will prove pleasant and profitable to them. President Hubbard speaks of their work in most complimentary terms and we are glad to know that it is likely that they will return next session.

MISS SUE S. MILLHOUSER, music teacher at the college, left for her home at Blairville, Pa., Saturday morning and we regret to say will not return next session. She is a thorough musician fully up to the demands of her profession and has given great satisfaction to both principal and patrons. Miss Inez Abernathy, head of the elocution and art department, went to Cincinnati Sunday, where she will spend some time in the further study of those branches. She is an excellent teacher and the possibility that she may return is regarded with pleasure.

Mrs. LAURA FAULKNER has returned from a visit to her daughter at Lily.

MR. M. E. LORD, of Louisville, spent Sunday with the family of Mr. H. T. Harris.

DURING the Summer months I will have a class in vocal and instrumental music. Parties desiring either will please give me a call. Theory and sight reading free. Mrs. Margaret A. Portman.

PROF. J. M. HUBBARD authorizes the statement that while no positive contract has been signed with any of the teachers, it is understood that at least three and possibly four of them will be engaged for the next session.

THE will of Mrs. Sallie Bryant was admitted to probate yesterday. It bequeaths all her property to her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Marcum, who is to enter into possession of it without the usual forms on paying her funeral expenses.

THE Advocate says that "contrary to expectations a large crowd attended the circus there Friday." The oldest inhabitant does not remember a time when Boyle county people would not postpone anything from a burial up to go to a circus.

THERE is as far as we can see, little or no harm in taking a little exercise on a bicycle on Sunday, but when it comes to taking 50 or 75 mile trips on the day the good Lord has set aside for rest it is carrying the thing too far and if a man's conscience don't make him desist, the law ought to.

THE Central University commencement began Sunday morning with the Baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Nouse, of Hopkinsville. At night Rev. W. K. Patterson preached to the Y. M. C. A. Last night at 8, Hon. J. N. Saunders, of Stanford, delivered the Alumni address. To night the union oratorical contest will occur and to-morrow at 10 the commencement exercises will be held. The graduating class numbers 21. Chancellor L. H. Blanton has our thanks for an invitation.

THE Stanford Roller Mills are running 18 hours per day and are hardly able to fill their orders at that. Jim Baughman, the head of the firm, is a hustler from away back.

TWELVE colored persons presented themselves for examination for public school teachers, Saturday. Five failed to get certificates, two got first-class, four got second-class and one a third-class certificate.

Mrs. J. E. FARRIS' hen roost was "touched" the other night and relieved of 20 or more of her best hens. Chicken thieves are getting entirely too numerous and some method will have to be brought about by which to exterminate them.

A MAN has been heard from who can beat Smiling Dave Jackson, of London, at his specialty. He lives at Liberty, Mo., and his laugh can be heard half a mile. The police have notified him that he must not laugh on the street.

THE Caladonian Literary Society will hold a debate at the court house here June 16 at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Resolved that a chicken can roost with more comfort on a round pole than a square pole." There will be music, declamations, essays, &c. Everybody invited.

TO TEACHERS AND TRUSTEES.—The present law which goes into effect July 1st, 1894, restricts a teacher holding a 3rd class certificate to districts reporting 54 pupils, or less, and a 2nd class certificate to districts reporting 74, or less. My information from headquarters is that the law regarding the above will be strictly adhered to. W. F. McClary, Co. Sup.

THE prohibitionists held a meeting yesterday with J. K. VanArsdale in the chair and A. H. Bastin secretary; and named Mr. Bastin, Dr. G. W. Bronaugh, J. T. Hackley and A. W. Carpenter for delegates to the Congressional convention at Harrodsburg. It was resolved not to put out a county ticket, as over half of the members of the party had pledged to the democratic nominees.

ANOTHER ELECTION.—In obedience to the mandamus of Judge Sauley, Judge Varnon yesterday issued an order for an election to take the sense of the voters of Stanford on the question as to whether spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be sold within the town limits, and fixed July 7th, as the day. An appeal was taken, but as the court of appeals will adjourn this week till September, the election will proceed. For our part we regret that the old sore is to be opened afresh, but there is some consolation in the fact that after this it can not be disturbed for three years.

OF Judge M. C. Sauley's address to the graduates of the Young Ladies' College at Harrodsburg, the Democrat says: He spoke gracefully of his early life in Harrodsburg as a student at the old Kentucky University and his pleasant memories of the place. He then passed to the subject of woman's position in the State and affirmed his belief in the justice of the rights allowed her in the old common law, and deplored the recent legislation in this State granting her control over her personal property after marriage. Judge Sauley took broad views here and very entertainingly and instructively traced the origin of the old common law to the 12 tribes of Israel and, therefore, argued that woman's property rights, as there defined, were of divine inspiration. He then gave a very earnest and instructive talk against woman's suffrage and wound up with an eloquent tribute to true American womanhood.

SHOOTING AT YOSEMITE.—Al Watkins, who now lives at Junction City, shot Conductor W. L. Pears at Yosemite Friday over an alleged intimacy with his wife. It seems that Capt. Pears, who is handsome and considerably of the Don Juan order of men, had been a little too intimate both with Miss Frederick, a sister of Mrs. Watkins, and that lady herself. A jealousy resulted and the single sister told on the married one. Friday afternoon the men met at Yosemite and had a friendly talk, closing with the request from Watkins that Pears take him to his room for a friendly conversation. Unexpectingly, Pears invited him up. Reaching the room, Watkins said: "You have dishonored my wife and I am going to kill you," at the same time drawing a murderous looking pistol. Pears immediately sprang upon him and throwing him to the floor, held him down until he promised to make no further demonstrations and to let the matter drop. Foolishly enough he put too much confidence in his antagonist, and failed to take his pistol from him. As soon as he was released Watkins, disregarding his promise, opened fire on the conductor, sending a ball into his right side, which passed through his lung and out of his back, lodging in some clothing on the wall. Having nothing with which to defend himself, Pears sprang through a window onto the top of a porch and then some 12 or 15 feet to the ground and ran till exhausted from loss of blood. Surgeons were called at once and dressed the wound, which Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, who happened at Yosemite at the time and assisted the operation, says is not necessarily fatal, unless pneumonia sets in. Watkins left after the shooting and said he was going to Liberty to give himself up, but we have not heard that he did. He is said to be a very reckless man and to have killed two men in other difficulties.

It has been very warm for several days and the corn and other vegetation can almost be heard to grow. "Probably thunder storms Tuesday night," says the weather bureau.

AN Indian pip of unusual carving was harnessed up the other day by J. F. Nance on his farm near McKinney. Though buried a hundred years or more, it is claimed that it still retains the tobacco smell.

MR. GUS HOFMANN, who was here yesterday, tells us that Crab Orchard Springs will open with a grand ball on Tuesday evening, June 19. He invites all persons fond of tripping the light fantastic to attend. Good music will be on hand.

A DISPATCH says that Mrs. M. J. Durham and other Lexington ladies, who took part in the protest meeting against Breckinridge have received letters, warning them that the skeletons in their closets will be brought to light if they do not desist. The fight over there seems to be descending to the lowest possible plane.

WANTED.—A good public school anywhere in Kentucky. I have a first class certificate, under which I can teach in any school in the State. I have taught for 10 years and refer to ex trustees and patrons in Stanford, Rowland, Lancaster, Mt. Xenia, Brights, White Oak, &c., in Lincoln and Garrard counties. Address M. D. Hughes, Lancaster, Ky. 2t.

STRUCK DUMB.—A man was found wandering around town yesterday in an aimless manner and upon inquiry it was found that he had been struck dumb. He had been in "danks", the jeweler, and the low prices on watches, jewelry, etc., so paralyzed him that he was unable to talk. This is not an advertisement, but it simply shows what low prices will do.

THE 23d Annual Session of Stanford Female College came to a pleasant close at 10 o'clock Friday night, when Rev. S. M. Logan, who had offered the opening prayer, pronounced the benediction. The night was perfect and the crowd immense, sardines in a box being hardly packed as close. Like every other thing the college has felt the effect of the hard times, but considering everything, the session has been fairly successful, fully as much so as most institutions of the kind. After delivering the diplomas, President J. M. Hubbard reviewed the year and spoke hopefully of the future, promising renewed efforts and the fullest results possible for the session of '94-'95, which begins Sept. 4, next. The program of the evening was as follows:

Overture—"Poet and Peasant".....Suppe
Misses Holmes and Reid.
Evening Hymn, Solo and Chorus.....
Recitation—"That Waltz of Van Weber's".....Perry
Miss Pearl Burnside.
Piano Accompaniment—Miss Isabella Bailey.
Vocal Duet—"Holy Mother, Guide His Foot steps".....Wallace
Misses Holmes and Steger.
Essay—"With the Help of Numberless Hands Must a Beautiful Thing be Done".....Ruskin
Miss Kate Alcorn.
Vocal Trio—"Forget Me Not".....Rotoli
Misses Holmes, Steger and Mershon.
Essay—"To Day".....Ruskin
Miss Mary Bruce.
Piano Solo—Polonaise, Op. 49.....Chopin
a. Valse, Op. 67.....Godard
Miss Alice Holmes.
Essay—"Do You Think You Can Make a Girl Lovely, if You do not Make Her Happy?".....Ruskin
Miss Callie Horton.
Vocal Solo—"Thine Eyes so Blue and Tender".....Lassen
Miss Eva Steger.
Festival Song.....Abt
Chorus
Hæc diplomata accipite.
Benediction.

The graduates, Misses Kate Alcorn, Mary Bruce and Callie Horton, were gown in material of purest white and the picture they presented from out the floral surroundings was one of beauty and loveliness. It was remarked by those who were able to hear them that the essays were of unusual merit. Certain it is that they were read well and that each fully filled the measure of expectation of her friends. Prof. Hubbard paid them all high compliments and the record of their class standing shows that their average was nearly perfect. Each received many handsome bouquets, as well as presents of usefulness and value, and were warmly congratulated on the auspicious transformation from the school girl to the young lady. The musical and other parts of the exercises were artistically given and the whole program being not too long to weary was heartily enjoyed.

Among the features of the concert Thursday night, program of which we gave in our last issue, were the solos of Misses Alice Holmes, Clara Mershon, Eva Lammers, Mattie Hopper and Eva Steger. All have good voices and show excellent training. They were liberally applauded and Miss Holmes was forced to respond to an encore, which she did very gracefully and sweetly. The piano pieces were well rendered and each performer showed the impress of the careful and capable teacher, Miss Sue S. Millhouser. The recitations by Misses Mary Carter, Lizzie Jones, Pearl Burnside and others were also pleasant features of the program. The doll drill by the smallest of the pupils dressed in old women's costumes was so excellently executed that the little ladies had to appear a second time. Other features are worthy of extended mention, but it is sufficient to say that the entire entertainment was of decided merit.
